

FACTS

Artefacts are objects that have been made by people.

Historians and archaeologists examine artefacts carefully to work out what they can tell us about life in the past. Studying artefacts helps us to understand what jobs people did, how they entertained themselves, how they lived and what they believed in.

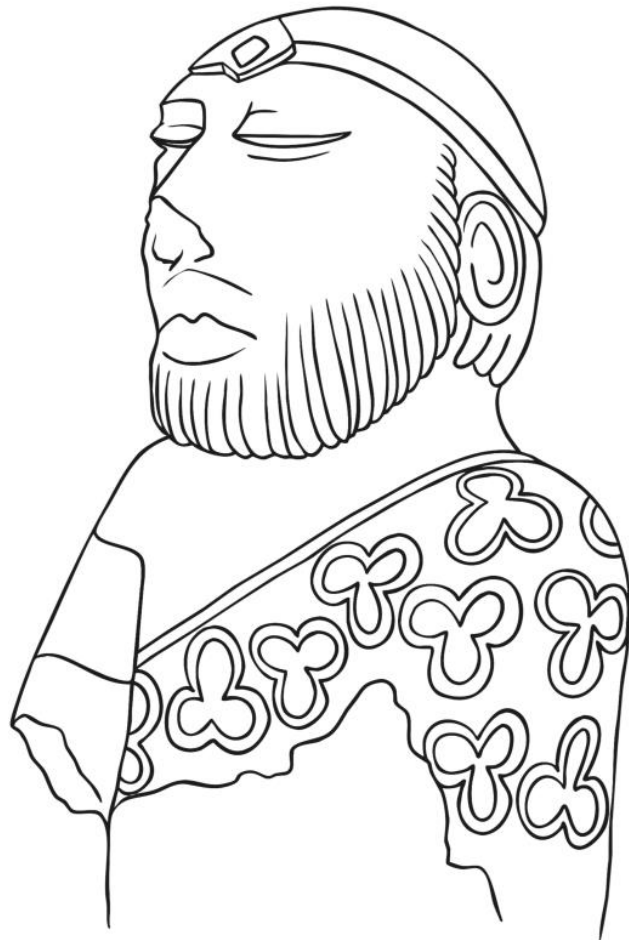

Today you are going to be historians, examining artefacts from the Harappan Civilisation.

PRIEST KING

The stone bust excavated from Mohenjo-daro of a man with an embroidered shawl over a shoulder is known as the 'priest-king.' It is dated to around 2000–1900 BCE.
